

The Eel

Focus Sound: ee/ea

Dean went to the beach. He dug in the sand. A big wave came.

Dean dove in the sea.

The sea was clear.

Dean could see the fish.

Then, Dean felt a long fin.

It was not a fish. It was a green

eel. The eel swam from side to side. The eel was sleek.

Dean could feel the slime

on the eel. "Eeek!" said

Dean. The eel swam to a reef.

Dean swam back to the sand.

"That was fun!" said Dean.

"I got to pet an eel." He sat in the shade. Dean had a nap.

What would you do if you felt an eel?
