

The Red Rose

Focus Sound: e at the end

Jake got a pot. "I will set it in the sun," said Jake. In time, a stem came up from the mud. It was the size of a pod.

Jake gave the plant a bit of water. Splash! Splash! The stem got big.

"Is it a vine?" said Jake.

The next time Jake fed the plant, it had a tad of red. "It is a red, red rose," said Jake.

Jake gave the rose to his mom. "What a fine gift," said Jake's mom. Jake's mom set the rose in a vase. It lit up the home. The End.
