

The Queen

Focus Sound: ee/ea By: B. Marker

Victoria was a queen. One year, she said, "I want a big, green tree." She got a pine tree. On the tree, she put sweet treats and beads. Next to the tree, she set gifts.

The queen said, "I like this tree a lot. It is like a dream. I want to have one each year." From that year on, lots of people had trees in their homes. The End.
